MEDIA RELEASE

02/17/2012

SUBJECT: Welfare Check / Found Juveniles

INCIDENT DATE/TIME: February 17, 2012 @ 1:33am

LOCATION: Police Department; 7341 Donna Drive

Two 5-year old boys are safe this morning, thanks to a Good Samaritan. At 1:33am, a lady brought the two 5-year old boys into the Middleton Police Department lobby after she said she found them wandering on Century Avenue and they appeared to be lost.

The kids told Officers they snuck out to go for a walk and, other than getting lost; they both had their coats on and were fine. As Officers were talking to the kids to find out who they were and where they lived, one of the kids' mothers called 911 to report her child missing. The kids reportedly were having a sleepover and had wandered off.

Officers reminded the boys about the importance of making sure their parents know where they are at all times and they were released to their parents.
