

Middleton Police Department Citizen's Academy

The Middleton Police Department is currently accepting applications for its Citizen's Academy that starts April 3, 2013.

This ten-week course offers citizens the opportunity to learn more about the Middleton Police Department by partaking in hands-on classes similar to those taken by police officers. The class will be presented by officers of the Middleton Police Department.

Students in the Middleton Police Department Citizen's Academy will receive training in the areas of Traffic Law Enforcement, Crime Scene Investigation, Defensive and Arrest Tactics, Emergency Vehicle Operation, Emergency Medical Response, Firearms, Fire Department Response, Police-School Liaison and other Basic Police Procedures.

The class will meet every Wednesday evening from 6pm to 9pm, starting April 3, 2013, and ending June 5, 2013. Anyone interested in the Citizen's Academy can download an application at www.MiddletonPD.com or by contacting Community Awareness Officer Jill Tutaj at 824-7323 or jtutaj@ci.middleton.wi.us. All applications should be turned in to Jill Tutaj by February 4th, 2013.

The Middleton Police Department Citizen's Academy is open to anyone who lives or works in the City of Middleton, however class size is limited.
