MEDIA RELEASE

October 11, 2013

Incident: Disturbance
Date: October 10, 2013 @ 9:53 PM
Location: 2000 block of Middleton Street
Defendant: Jason R. Klingbeil, 39
Incident #: 13-6981

On 10/10/13 at approximately 9:53 PM Middleton Police were dispatched to an address in the 2000 block of Middleton Street for the report of a disturbance where the suspect had kicked in the door.

Subsequent investigation showed that Jason R. Klingbeil, 39, of Middleton had forcibly entered the house and physically assaulted the resident as she attempted to dial 911, breaking her phone in the process. She and the upstairs neighbor were both eventually able to call 911 initiating the police response.

Klingbeil was confronted outside the residence by the first responding officer. He kicked the officer in the upper torso and was eventually subdued with a Taser and taken into custody. The officer was transported to the hospital and later released. Klingbeil was also transported to the hospital and eventually taken to the Dane County Jail.

Klingbeil is facing the following charges: Battery to a law enforcement officer, resisting officers, criminal trespass to a dwelling, criminal damage to property, battery, disorderly conduct and intimidation of a victim.
